If a student has missed under the 8 hours, they may make their hours up in additional yoga classes, taught by Paula. (aerial is not included). If more than 2 days have been missed, other arrangements will have to be made, such as paid privates with teachers, and or waiting for next years' teacher training program.

By the first day of training full tuition is expected to be paid in full, or credit card payments to be set up. I understand that during the training if I drop out, my tuition paid cannot be returned. If I needed to drop out, my training can be finished at Anahata on another teacher training year.
